INFORMATION SHEET

TOURNAMENT The only full scale golf tournament for the disabled in Japan. A 36 hole stroke play (scratch tournament). Players compete in 8 divisions: (1)upper limb disability, (2)lower limb disability, (3)multiple disabilities, (4)mild disability, (5)wheel chair, (6)mental disability, (7)people recovered from stroke, (8)Grand Prix. Each division has to have at least five participants to hold the competition. The top three players of each division will be prized. The winner of the Grand Prix division will be awarded as the Champion of the Japan Open. First-time participants will have an interview with classifiers before or after the welcome dinner on October 3rd to be classified.

*Grand Prix division entry requests must be made in advance

ORGANIZER Japan Disabled Golf Association (JDGA)

SUPPORTERS Japan Golf Association (JGA), (planned: Japan Sport Council, Chiba Prefecture, Kimitsu City, Japan Para-Sports Association (JPSA), Japan National Council of Social Welfare, SELP (Support of Employment, Living, and Participation, etc.

QUALIFICATION Professional or amateur golfer with any of the above mentioned disabilities (does not include hearing disability), whose disability is recognized by the classification committee. Participants must become registered members of the Japan Disabled Golf Association. Able-bodied persons may participate in the volunteer division.

CLASSIFICATION EXAMINATION First time participants will be subject to a classification interview. However, your classification may change depending on how you play during the match. It may not be possible to determine your extent of ability during the interview, and a further review of actual movement during play may be necessary. We thank you in advance for your understanding.

This championship is scheduled to be registered as a game for the World Ranking for Golfers with Disability (WR4GD). To be listed in the ranking, please obtain a separate WR4GD pass.

COURSE New Kimitsu Bell Green Country Club

The New Kimitsu Bell Green Country Club is a public course where each hole spreads out on gentle southern slopes. The beautiful undulating fairway is reminiscent of a real Links style course. This course is full of individuality and variety, and its openness gives you a sense of freedom. With easy access to Narita airport, New Kimitsu Bell Green Country Club welcomes golfers from around the world. It is a well known, popular course, but it has many traps, so you must stay alert!
